

Brian and Marie have been providing accommodation for learners for over 10 years.

They are retired with a close family living nearby. With their own children grown up they enjoy having the company of young people staying with them and providing home-from-home hospitality.

They have supported many apprentices throughout their training and have always proved very popular with all of their learners.